

PRESS NOTE

Special team of Cyber Crime P.S. of CCS DD Hyderabad have apprehended one accused by name Mr.Victor Immanuel Chandrakant @ Chandrakant @ Victor George @ V I C Kanth at Chennai on 02-01-2017 for cheating the complainant Mirza Qayum Baig to a tune of 2.4 lakhs in the pretext of providing huge amount of commission by making LIC policies to software employees. Similarly the accused cheated two more women of Hyderabad with his false promises to a tune of 4 lakhs. In Chennai also he cheated many persons.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

On 14-09-2015 received a complaint from Mr.Mirza Qayum Baig S/O Mirza Mobin Baig age.29 yrs Occ: Nutrition Advisor R/O H.No.13-2-949 Kagaziguda, Puranapool, Karwan South, Hyderabad. Ph: 7097056747 stating that Mr.V.I.C.Kanth introduce himself to the complainant as an agent of Mr.Srinivasan Raju who was carrying on services as Insurance Agent and was receiving huge payments towards commission.

Mr.V.I.C.Kanth told the complainant that he got good links with HR managers of many software companies and nearly 2300 employees are ready to get insured. If the complainant join as insurance agent, the company would provide commission to the agent, from that 10% commission would be given to the HR managers for providing their employees and 20% commission would be retained by the agent. To get the agency from insurance company, the accused demanded to deposit an amount of 1% of the total insured amount as security deposit. The total insured amount is estimated to be 2.3 crores as each employee has to take a policy for Rs.10,000/-. Believing the words of the accused the complainant transferred the amount of Rs.2.3 lakhs into the bank account of the accused. Later the accused encashed the amount and avoided the calls of the complainant.

Hence the complainant requested to take immediate action against the said V.I.C.Kanth and do the needful justice.

Basing on the complaint a case in Cr.No.283/2015 U/S 66©(D) IT Act-2008 and Sec.420 IPC has been registered and investigated.

The team was lead by K.V.M.Prasad Inspector of Police with two constables Satish and Vijay under the supervision of ACP Sri.Raghuvir.
