

PRESS NOTE

SHE Teams, Hyderabad City Police caught 30 people including 22 majors and 8 minors for harassing women during Ganesh immersion, many were warned.

During the final day of Ganesh Procession and immersion, SHE teams, Hyderabad City Police were in observation at different parts of the city to check for any women harassment issues and to nab the offenders.

While the teams were observing, some people were following the procession and sprinkling water on the ladies, who were immersed in the Ganesh sloganeering and Bhakti songs. Some were throwing water packets.

Some people were caught for throwing paper pieces and flowers on ladies. Some were taking selfies with ladies without their knowledge. Some were blowing whistles and shouting at the ladies.

Some of them followed and stalked the women. Few others were trying to touch the ladies inappropriately in inebriated condition. All these activities were video recorded and they were caught red handed with video evidence.

Majority of them were caught at the Tank bund and the others from S R nagar, Charminar, Falaknuma, Mehdipatnam, Chaderghat, Secunderabad etc areas. Cases were registered and they are being produced in the court. Dozens were warned for creating nuisance during the Ganesh Shobha yatra.

Additional Commissioner of Police,
Crimes and SIT, Hyderabad City.