PRESS RELEASE

The Marketing Intelligence Team of Cyber Crimes PS, DD, Hyderabad City have arrested one accused by name Maddela deepu babu @Vittal @Gopal @Prathap reddy on 30-09-2019 at Bangalore N/o Rajamundry who cheated the complainant by impersonating as CEO of Airtel Company and in guise of providing Fancy/VIP airtel mobile numbers, looted money from him. The accused person was involved in fraudulent transfer of Rs 45,800 from complainant in Cr. No. 856/2019 of PS Cyber Crimes and other cases at different districts of Telangana and Andhra Pradesh states. Incriminating material was seized from the possession of the accused person.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

Facts of the case are that received a complaint from Sri Janaki Ram Mohan R/o Hyderabad, wherein the complainant stated that on 19-09-2019 their company CEO received a message from unknown number wherein the sender offered a Fancy Mobile No.s 9899999999, 9123456789, 9999999099 and 9999999999 at less prices. Upon which the complainant contacted Un known person, who introduced himself as Mr. Gopal working as CEO of AIRTEL Company. On the promises and assurance made by Mr.Gopal, complainant deposited an amount of Rs 45,800/- to the accused bank account. Afterwards caller not provided any fancy number and avoided complainant calls. In this regard complainant requested to take necessary action against the unknown person.

Details of the arrested person

Maddela Deepu Babu S/o Lakshman Rao (late), Age: 28 years residing at Bangalore N/o Rajamundry, Andhra Pradesh

MO. OF THE OFFENDER

The accused obtained several Sim cards and bank accounts to cheat the victims. He gathered the information of MLA, MPs and other corporates who contested in the elections through internet. Afterwards he used to send the messages to their mobile numbers on pretext of selling fancy mobile numbers at lesser prices. Whenever any person shows interest to buy those and contacts him, he introduces himself as CEO of Airtel Company with fake identity cards and photos to gain the confidence of the victim. Afterwards he will induce the victim that the fancy mobile number which was sent is for Urgent sale and as several persons shown interest to buy that, he will insist victim to transfer the some money as advance. When the victim has transferred the advance amount the fraudster will then send a fake Porting code and asks to deposit more money by citing different reasons like GST and other taxes saying that all these are refundable. Mostly the transactions happen through fake bank accounts with the name of Airtel India private limited and Profile photo, true caller name as Gopal, CEO of Airtel Company.

In this regard the it is advised to not to believe such Unrealistic offers regarding sale of fancy numbers and mobile phones which were spreading through different forms of Internet and never deposit money without physical verification.

The team headed by Inspector of Police Sri. B. Madhusudan consisting of team members S.I, T. Vinay Kumar & HC Hanuman Prasad, PC Prabhu under the direct supervision of Addl. Dy. Commissioner of Police, Cyber Crimes Sri. K. C. S. Raghu Vir has cracked the said case at Bangalore.
