{{ Construction of New Osmania Hospital Building at Goshamahal Police Stadium – Inspection of Works and Relocation of Police Units}}

Hyderabad: The government has decided to construct a new building for Osmania Hospital within the premises of the Goshamahal Police Stadium. Today, Hyderabad Police Commissioner Sri C.V. Anand IPS inspected the ongoing construction works at the site.

Speaking to the media, Sri CV Anand stated that with the new Osmania Hospital building under construction, the police department's existing blocks are being relocated. He informed that the horse ground and stables have been temporarily moved to the vacant space within the Goshamahal Police Stadium. He added that, effective today, all departments belonging to the police force will be fully shifted and handed over to the Medical Department.

The Commissioner explained that the government has allocated 11.5 acres to the Hyderabad City Police at this location. Two five-storey buildings are currently under construction: one will serve as a suitable facility for the City Security Wing (CSW), and the other will be designed for parking various vehicles seized across the city's seven zones. Additionally, a new horse stable and ground are being prepared. He also mentioned that the government has allocated another 2 acres adjacent to the Traffic Training Institute (TTI). Chief Minister Sri A. Revanth Reddy has personally sanctioned Rs. 55 crores for these constructions. It has been decided that the Police Housing Corporation will complete the construction of these buildings in approximately one year.

Formation of "Swift Women Action Team"

Sri C.V. Anand IPS DG CP Hyderabad noted that dharnas, rallies, and protests are frequent occurrences in Hyderabad city, and arresting women during such events has often presented challenges. To overcome this, a team of 35 newly recruited women constables has been formed at the Hyderabad Police Headquarters. This team has been officially named the "Swift Women Action Team."

The Commissioner elaborated that these women have received specialized training in karate over the past few days, along with specific instruction on how to safely detain and manage women during protests. Sri C.V. Anand IPS, CP Hyderabad, stated that more personnel will be recruited soon, and the team will be expanded into two platoons, comprising a total of 42 members. He extended his congratulations to the officers and all team members who have meticulously prepared the Swift Women Action Team.

Smt. Rakshita Krishna Murthy IPS, DCP CAR Headquarters; Sri D. Kishtaiah, Additional DCP; Sri N. Bhaskar, Additional DCP; West Zone Additional DCP Sri Iqbal Siddiqui; and other police officers participated in this program.

Press Release

Date: June 3, 2025

Today, Hyderabad Police Commissioner (DG) Sri C.V. Anand IPS visited the Ram Gopal Pet Police Station building located on James Street in Secunderabad. Speaking on the occasion, he announced that the Hyderabad Metropolitan Development Authority (HMDA) had completed renovations on the building and handed it over to the Hyderabad City Police.

The Commissioner explained that the James Street Police Station building was constructed in 1900 and served as the Ram Gopal Pet Police Station for a long period of 116 years until 2016. Due to the need for repairs, the police station was moved to a rented building on Minister Road nine years ago. He recalled that during his tenure as DCP Central Zone, many programs were organized from this very building, emphasizing its unique significance.

Commissioner Anand stated that in the coming days, items belonging to the Ram Gopal Pet Police Station would be shifted back to this building, and its inauguration would be performed by the In-charge Minister for Hyderabad District, Sri Ponnampallabharathi Prabhakar. He also noted the significant increase in the number of police vehicles and mentioned efforts are underway to provide adequate parking facilities for them. He urged the preservation of old (historically significant) structures in Hyderabad for future generations.

The Commissioner also informed that the Commissioner's office in Purani Haveli, belonging to the Hyderabad City Police, has been undergoing renovations for the past three years and is also nearing its inauguration. He added that once the Purani Haveli Commissioner's office is operational, he would discharge his duties from there every Friday.

The event was attended by Smt. S. Rashmi Perumal IPS, DCP North Zone, and Sri Rahul Hegde IPS, DCP Traffic, along with other officials.
